NCICU Ethics Bowl Logistics Information

Hotel Accommodations

Up to a maximum of four (4) rooms in the host hotel will be provided by NCICU for student team members and Campus Coordinators. NCICU will pay for hotel rooms and applicable taxes. Incidentals (room service, parking, etc.) will be the responsibility of team members and Campus Coordinators. The hotel will request a credit card from Campus Coordinators upon check-in to cover these incidental charges, if any are incurred.

Transportation

Campus Coordinators are responsible for organizing and transporting students to and from the event.

Registration/Check-in

Check-in for the Ethics Bowl will take place at the site of the event. One packet containing all of the necessary information for student team members and Campus Coordinators will be distributed to one Campus Coordinator for each participating institution.

Dress

The student teams will be judged by corporate, civic, governmental and non-profit organization leaders from across the state. As such, student team members and Campus Coordinators are asked to arrive dressed in business attire. This attire generally includes suits and/or dresses, dress slacks and skirts. Clothing such as jeans, t-shirts, strapless or spaghetti strap blouses, and suggestive clothing are not acceptable for this event. Campus Coordinators are responsible for ensuring that students are dressed appropriately for photo opportunities that will occur during the two-day event.

Food and Beverage

NCICU will provide a reception and dinner on the first day of the Ethics Bowl competition. Wristbands will be provided in your packets for your distribution to those students who are of alcohol consumption age, if they so choose. All dinner attendees will have pre-assigned seating and placecards with applicable table numbers will be available for pick-up upon arrival at the Museum of History. Participation in the Ethics Bowl dinner is mandatory for Campus Coordinators and teams. On the second day, a light continental breakfast will be provided, and if team members desire more substantial fare, that the team purchase from the hotel prior to arriving at the event. Refreshments will be available throughout both days of the event.

Inclement Weather

In the case of inclement weather, NCICU staff will notify Campus Coordinators as soon as possible regarding any decisions to cancel or delay the event. Please send an update to our staff should your cell phone number change.
